Mrs Barak,
They have currently paid $70,000 which means they have an outstanding balance of $130,000. The payment came from the Nizami Ganjavi International Center but they are now telling us that they do not have the money to pay the balance. They are trying to get it from a partnering organizations. We have learned that the more time that goes by between when an engagement takes place and when the payment arrives, the less likely we are to actually be paid. They have promised us that the money was already sent for months now, so it's hard for us to believe what they tell us. As an excuse, they are using the cost of the security, although they understood that going in. Please let me know if you need any other information. Thanks so much for any help you are able to provide. By the way, we never told them that we paid you the full fee. If they knew that, they would be even less likely to pay us as they certainly don't want to be embarrassed in front of Prime Minister Barak, but about HWA they probably only care a little. So please don't mention that you have already been paid. Thanks --Emily hi emily,

can we have more information as to the problem? you wrote: "the sponsor did not pay the full fee" - what sum did they pay and who paid? maybe they devided the fees between the sponsor (who is the sponsor) and the Alexandria library? we would like to get more details in order to try to be of help, if possible.

Mrs Barak,
We were so glad that the Azerbaijan event went well in light of the logistical issues. We wanted to let you know that the sponsor still has not paid us the full fee for your visit. We have been pressing them for the payment for a few weeks now and we wanted to see if you had the names of any Azerbaijani officials that may be able to help us? Also if you have a conversation with anyone from this event, would you mind letting them know that we have still not been paid?

This obviously has not affected your honorarium as we stand by our contract. We would just appreciate any assistance you might be able to provide in collecting this money.

Thanks so much,
Emily
